the Stan Erhart Band

A fun & funky mix of some of the finest musicians in the San Francisco Bay Area. This group throws down the jams, covering R&B, Rock, Blues, & Soul-Jazz classics, plus their own well crafted Originals. Tunes & genres are mixed & stirred to create the band's signature danceable 'stew'. Delivering tight energetic arrangements with great vocals is what they do best.

"Stan Erhart has a great voice, and really knows how to use tone and voicing on guitar."
-- John Orr, San Jose Mercury News

"Stan has one of the finest voices in blues. And is very skilled with the guitar." -- James Fox, Love Is The Song We Sing

"Soulful vocals ... scalding guitar!" -- Peter 'Blewzzman' Lauro, Blues Editor

By way of Kansas City & Chicago to San Francisco ...

Stan's roots go back to the Kansas City farm, where tractors, country guitars, & Dad's harmonica tunes were the everyday background. As a kid, he first picked up his brother's baritone horn, followed by guitar, vocals, & woodwinds, later earning a music degree in Michigan. Long gig commutes to Chicago led to moving there to make a living at club work & private lessons, all the while working on his own blend of R&B, Rock, & Blues. Finally relocating to San Francisco, he formed one of the region's hardest working groups, playing clubs & events all over the Bay Area. They can keep 'em dancing at showcases or deliver a nice cocktail hour to the dinner crowd.

The Band Dishes up Big Plates of Roots Rockin', Good Timin', Music -- With a Little of Everything on the Side!

Stan Erhart and Nancy Wright put on one hell of a show Friday night at Deseo Tequila Lounge, and graciously let the Kenny Neal Band play a few songs. -- 'Westside' George Schoenstein, Redwood City PAL Blues Festival

Listeners will love its harmonious chorus and red-hot guitar solo. Everyone in the band (including Michael Warren on bass and Randy Hayes on drums) is batting at their best. -- Rainey Wetnight, Blues Blast Magazine

Stan Erhart has a great voice, and really knows how to use tone and voicing on guitar. -- John Orr, San Jose Mercury News

Included in the mixes was Stan Erhart, San Francisco singer/songwriter, on guitar. With his own solos, or backup guitar, he melted the crowd. -- Marilyn Stringer, Blues Blast Magazine

Special mention to Stan Erhart's group that played at the Tequila bar after Kenny Neal tore it up on the square. Stan's show was truly incredible, and I was not the only one who thought so - judging from the reactions of the enthusiastic crowd. -- Bobbi Goodman, Photographer, Redwood City PAL Blues Festival)

Stan has a great voice for a white guy! -- Dorothy Hill, Music Critic & Former TGGBS President
